GOVERNANCE
Phase II: Stabilizing Governance

Activity 13: Recognition and Contributions

Goals
1. Understand how the program currently recognizes contributions
2. Understand how recognitions and contributions are incorporated into the program
3. Understand the kind of recognition that is most appreciated/motivating to each kind of contributor
4. Discover how the program can improve in this area

Activity Instructions
1. As a group, discuss the 6Rs (included on page 2)
   a. How are they incorporated in your program?
   b. Which are not incorporated?
2. If you have a large group, form smaller groups of 4 - 5 people
3. Have each group select a specific stakeholder group/persona from Activity: Who is Your Community? or Activity: Creating Personas
   a. It is okay for some personas to be discussed by multiple groups
4. Talk through what recognition is important for the chosen stakeholder/persona
5. Report out to larger group
6. Discuss themes and gaps that need to be addressed to keep current contributors engaged and to entice new contributors
7. Prioritize and create action plan to incorporate

Potential Next Steps: This information can inform working groups or specific outreach activities. Consider if there need to be higher level program changes to accommodate the recognition needs (e.g. more representation on governance groups or different voting rights).

Prerequisites
Gov Activity: Who Is Your Community?

Related Activities
Activity: Creating Personas

Who Should Participate?
Wide mix of people, including representation from the stakeholder groups you are working to understand.

The 6Rs

Contributions are critical for community- and open-source software. Understanding what motivates potential and current contributors is essential.

There are 6 crucial recognition qualities. These are not “one size fits all” but these can be a helpful way to consider what is important to different contributors. They include:

1. Recognition: People want to be recognized for their contributions.
2. Respect: People want their values, culture, ideas, and time to be respected and considered in the organization's activities.
3. Role: People want a clearly meaningful role in the coalition that makes them feel valuable and in which they can make a contribution.
4. Relationships: People want the opportunity to establish and build networks both professionally and personally for greater influence and enjoyment.
5. Reward: People expect the rewards of participating in a collaborative partnership to outweigh the costs and to benefit from the relationships established.
6. Results: People respond to visible results that are clearly linked to outcomes that are important to them and that they can clearly link to their participation in the coalition.
