

Who are your technology stakeholders? A stakeholder is any individual, group, or organization within or outside the project who is impacted by its outcome or has an interest in its success.

