

Self-deposit process in DSpace

New features

- Improved interface: Significant changes to the interface for a more intuitive user experience.
- Metadata management: Use of standardized schemas like Dublin Core and OpenAIRE.

Repository structure

Communities and collections:

- Communities: Top-level groups containing collections.
- Collections: Contain items (records) with metadata.

Management processes

Creation and editing:

- Communities and sub-communities.
- Collections and sub-collections.
- Items: Titles, authors, keywords, dates, etc.

Roles and permissions

- Administrators: Complete management of communities and collections.
- Submitters: Perform new submissions.
- Reviewers and editors: Supervision and approval of records.

Search and filter Options

- Advanced search: By topic, author, date, keywords.
- Customizable filters: Within specific communities and collections.

Statistics and subscriptions

- Statistics: Views and downloads of items.
- Subscriptions: Updates on new uploads and changes in the repository.

Access and visibility

- Handle identifiers: Persistent URLs for each item.
- Creative commons licenses: Selection of usage permissions.

