Access to US Congressional Correspondence Data

Grant DOI: https://doi.org/10.54514/5dqm9

Grantee: West Virginia University

Lead Investigator: Danielle Emerling

Keywords: University library, Congressional correspondence, Data processing

Year Awarded: 2018

Amount: $27,000

Related Items:

- Final Report: https://doi.org/10.48609/6030-r223
- Webinar: http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12669/82

Description: This project completed a feasibility study that assessed and planned for the future of a collaborative technical infrastructure for an open-source congressional correspondence data access tool. The goal of the project was to improve how libraries process and provide access to large data sets with sensitive information and how scholars and the public use data related to Americans’ civic engagement.