Quantitative Research Institute for Libraries

Grant DOI: https://doi.org/10.54514/i4x3s

Grantee: Duquesne University

Lead Investigator: Cathryn Miller

Co-Lead Investigators: Marcia Rapchak, Sara Baron

Keywords: University library, Quantitative research, Library statistics

Year Awarded: 2018

Amount: $16,310

Related Items:
- Final Report: https://doi.org/10.48609/3c81-7468
- Presentation Slides: https://doi.org/10.48609/9te5-4j65

Description: The focus of this project was to develop an open curriculum that can be adapted by anyone. The sample institute that was held during the grant period was used to prepare librarians and library staff for the quantitative research required to show their value, assess library services and student learning, and to better serve their communities.