Conversational Artificial Intelligence: Bringing the Library to Your Living Room

Grant DOI: https://doi.org/10.54514/c5ns7

Grantee: King County Library System

Lead Investigator: Angela Nolet

Keywords: Public library, Artificial intelligence, Library patron services, Voice assistant

Year Awarded: 2019

Amount: $34,600

Related Items:
- Final Report: https://doi.org/10.48609/8cf1-7t22
- Presentation Slides: https://doi.org/10.48609/z8tx-9638

Description: King County Library System explored the community demand for and researched the feasibility of implementing a library application to interface with common conversational artificial intelligence systems (e.g., Alexa, Siri, Cortana, etc.), with the goal of empowering the public to benefit from library resources anytime, anywhere.