VIVO Scholar Task Force

The VIVO Scholar Task Force is creating a new user interface for VIVO, called VIVO Scholar. VIVO Scholar will work with VIVO implementations at version 1.10 and above. The VIVO Scholar Task Force began on April 15, 2019 and will be working to release a beta version in the spring of 2020.

We've got lots of information about VIVO Scholar, but if you have more questions, please talk to anyone on the VIVO Scholar Task force.
