Fedora Office Hours

Notice

Fedora Office Hours are not currently in effect. However, you might find a helpful Fedora developer or two hanging out on the #duraspace channel on Freenode (connect through your browser here by entering a unique nick and #duraspace as the channel).

Got a development question or just an idea you want to bounce off someone? Check out the Fedora Developer's List

Or if you're new to Fedora or have a question about installing or using the software, try the Fedora Users' List.
