

Design - Last-Modified Property

This page describes the actions that should and should not result in updating the last-modified date of a resource.

1. Binary
 - a. Creating node (should be the same as the created date)
 - b. Updating fcr:metadata properties with PUT or PATCH ?
 - c. Updating content
2. Container
 - a. Creating node (should be the same as the created date)
 - b. Updating properties with PUT or PATCH
 - c. Creating a child resource (results in new ldp:contains property)
 - d. Creating a child in a DirectContainer or IndirectContainer that has the resource as the ldp:membershipResource (results in new membership property)