    - VIVO Email list changes: Email and subscribers have been migrated

        - vivo-community@googlegroups.com. This list will be used for all discussions having to do with building community – inside organizations and across organizations. The list is currently active. Please join this list at http://www.googlegroups.com to participate in these discussions.
        - vivo-tech@googlegroups.com. This list will be used for all technical discussions – system administration, data management, ontology, RDF, SPARQL. Archives of the old lists (vivo-ontology, vivo-dev-all and vivo-imp-issues) are available as an archive of the new list. Please join this list at http://www.googlegroups.com if you are interested in participating in technical discussions.
        - vivo-all@googlegroups.com This list will be used for announcements and VIVO Updates. People subscribed to this list will receive limited announcement/digest type email. If the discussions on the other lists are too active you may wish to subscribe only to vivo-all.

Theme: VIVO 1.9 Planning

With the VIVO 1.8.1 release in the wild, please join VIVO tech lead Graham Triggs and project director Mike Conlon to discuss the next VIVO release.

Mike's weekly update notes: "Workgroups and task forces are encouraged to discuss possible features for version 1.9. See the Outreach and Engagement meeting notes regarding their recent discussion. Discussion on the lists is strongly encouraged. You may wish to share your thoughts with the Steering Group or with Mike Conlon or Graham Triggs personally. However you choose to share your thoughts, please feel free to do so – we would love to hear from you!"
