Discussion items

1. New JIRA workflow -- includes “Received” and “In Review.” No longer includes “Resolved.”
    a. Tickets do not automatically open. They are marked “Received” to start.
    b. Once there’s a pull request, the ticket is marked “In Review.”
    c. Tickets previously marked as “Resolved” have been moved to “Closed”
    d. You may enter a ticket, assign it to yourself, and mark it as Open, and then “In Progress” when work begins.
2. Tickets “In review”
    a. Suggestion: Two reviewers, one of which is a committer, neither of which is the author review and approve. With two reviews, the pull request can be committed.
    b. Options for committer.
        i. Click “Merge”

    ii. Click “Squash” and “Merge” to get the commits into one commit and then merge.  This might be the default.
    iii. Surgically combine some commits into groups, merge groups
c. Jim: Squash commit is useful for hacking things out d.
e. -- Jim, and John to review
f. Unable to locate Jira server for this macro. It may be due to Application Link configuration. -- has been reviewed
g. Unable to locate Jira server for this macro. It may be due to Application Link configuration. – Mike will review, it might
h. Unable to locate Jira server for this macro. It may be due to Application Link configuration. -- Brian, Kitio to review

3. Sprint topics (...of what comes out of the March 1st strategy meeting)
    a. Initial announcement (Planning and Sign-up page)
    b. Dates for sprints:
        i. #1 weeks of April 23rd and 30th -- Javed will lead, supported by Ralph and Kitio
        ii. #2 weeks of May 21st and 28th -- leaders TBA
    b. Comments on the Tech Initiatives document will be opened up after March 1.
    c. Partial commitment to the sprint is possible -- requires crystal clear communication about availability.
    d. Participation across time zones, asynchronous participation.  Need to work things out, set expectation
4. Questions being answered on the mailing lists
    a. Could take one-two hours per day
    b. Pending question on Solr was documented in 1.8, but not in 1.9 (Maven)
